WHY DO WE NEED A SHED?

Sweetheart, we really, really do....

Have either of us ever said one of these?

- “Ugh, we need more space!”
- “I have no where to put this!”
- “I wish you would find another spot besides the kitchen floor or dining room for these projects.”
- “I wish there was a better place for tools and lawn equipment. A tarp just isn’t good enough.”
- “Can’t the in-laws stay at a hotel?”
- “I wish we had an extra room or even a closet in the house.”

A high-angle, top-down photograph of a woman with a long brown braid, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt, sitting at a wooden desk. She is looking down at a laptop screen. The desk is cluttered with several white papers, some of which have yellow and green sticky notes attached to them. The background is a light-colored wooden surface.
